EULA TUCKER WEDS WILL C. WILLIAMS.

Miss Eula Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tucker, was married to Will C. Williams at the home of the bride's parents, 10 North Garth avenue, at 8 o'clock last night.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Jewell Price played Beethoven's "Sonata in F" and Schubert's "Wedding March." The Rev. W. M. Haushalter read the service. The home was decorated in flowers and ferns.

The bride wore a frock of white crepe satin trimmed with georgette crepe and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and valley lilies. She was unattended.

Only relatives and close friends of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will spend their honeymoon at Chicago and on the lakes. They will make their home in Mexico, Mo., where the bridegroom is employed in the Southern Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Buddemeyer of Centralia, who are former residents of Columbia, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Amanda Marie, to Herbert F. Glover of Winnebago, Neb., on Wednesday evening, June 21, at the home of the bride's parents in Centralia. The ceremony was read by the Rev. J. O. Witworth of Sturgeon before a host of friends and flowers erected on the lawn.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe satin with opalescent and crystal bead embroidery and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and sweet jasmine. The veil was held in place by opalescent sequins.

Miss Nelle Buddemeyer, who was maid of honor, wore a dress of lavender organdie with hat to match. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and ferns. Mont W. Buddemeyer acted as best man.

After the ceremony a reception was given for about sixty guests.

Mrs. Glover was graduated from the Columbia High School in 1916, after which she attended school at Warrensburg, Mo., for two years. She has been teaching in the primary department of the Walthill, Neb., public schools during the last two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover will make their home in Chicago where Mr. Glover will be in school this summer.

Miss Bertha Cunningham, matron of the University, will be married at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to Elmer Hill, at the home of her mother, 205 St. James street. Both are Columbians. Mr. Hill is a graduate of the University and Miss Cunningham is a former student of the University.

The marriage of Miss Anne Herrmann, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Herrmann of St. Louis, and Ralph Eugene Blodgett was solemnized at the Maple Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church at 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in St. Louis.

Mr. Blodgett was graduated from the University of Missouri, where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, in 1904. He was the first man from the state of Missouri to win the Rhodes Scholarship to Oxford University, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett will make their home in St. Louis after a honeymoon spent in motoring through the East.

Members of the Sigma Nu fraternity who are in summer school will entertain with a picnic at McBaine on the Perche this evening. Those who will go are the Misses Eugenia Dodd, Marian Williams and Elizabeth Reid, and George Holland, George Summers and Orville Ament.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Keller of St. Louis will motor to Columbia tomorrow to spend the week-end with their son, Kirk Keller, at the Sigma Nu house. Mr. Keller is secretary and treasurer of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Mr. Keller is a former student of the University and a member of the Columbia chapter of Sigma Nu in 1888.

The circles of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. W. E. Edwards, 15 West Broadway will entertain circle three; Mrs. Marshall Gordon, Ashland street, circle four; Mrs. F. A. Jeffries, 205 Edge wood, circle five; and Mrs. R. H. Jesse, 810 Hillcrest, circle six.

Miss Nell Feaster left today for Cape Girardeau, Mo., to visit Mrs. Harry Himmelberger. The first two weeks in August will be spent at the Himmelberger cottage on the lake at Tulzer, Ind.

Dr. H. B. Wahl of Madison, Wis., arrived today for his marriage to Miss Cecile Stone which is to be solemnized at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Stone, 1310 Rosemary lane.

Miss Aurelia Spalding, 901 Virginia avenue, will entertain with a dinner party tomorrow evening. The guests will be Misses Marian Williams, Margaret Williams, Ruth Eckle, Helen Greene and Elsie Greene.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Estill of Estill, Mo., will entertain at dinner on Sunday for a group of Columbia friends. Among the guests who will drive to Estill are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bowling and Miss Dorothy Heintzelman.

The Women's Council of the Christian Church held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. H. H. Banks today. The members tackled quilts and comforts for the Old Ladies' home and the Orphans' Home in St. Louis. A picnic dinner was served at noon.

Miss Annabelle Thompson motored to Columbia yesterday from her home in Baker, Mo., and spent the day with friends. Miss Thompson was an instructor in the home economics department of the University last winter.
